This matter comes before the Court for judicial review of the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security denying Plaintiff's application for Disability Insurance Benefits ("DIB") and Supplemental Security Income ("SSI"). In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Rule 73.02, D.S.C., this matter was referred to the United States Magistrate Judge for pretrial handling. The Magistrate Judge issued a Report and Recommendation ("R & R") on March 8, 2018, recommending that the decision of the Commissioner be reversed and remanded to the agency because the Administrative Law Judge's ("ALJ") finding that the claimant's mental impairments were non-severe was based on an incomplete and erroneous review of the record evidence and the ALJ failed to apply proper legal standards in evaluating the opinions of the claimant's treating physician, resulting in deficiencies in the determination of the RFC. (Dkt. No. 20 at 20-30). The Commissioner has advised the Court that she does not intend to file objections to the R & R. (Dkt. No. 22).

The Court has reviewed the R & R and the record evidence and finds that the Magistrate

Judge has ably addressed the factual and legal issues in this matter. Therefore, the Court ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation as the order of this Court, REVERSES the decision of the Commissioner pursuant to Sentence Four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), and REMANDS the matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings consistent with this order.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

United States District Judge
